1. CALL TO ORDER / ROLL CALL / SEATING OF ALTERNATES

Chairman DeFelice called the meeting to order at 7:08 p.m. The members introduced themselves and attendance was taken. There were no alternates to be seated.

2. AMENDMENTS TO AGENDA / APPROVAL OF AGENDA

Frank DeFelice stated that representatives from Fitzgerald and Halliway, Inc. (FHI), asked that the agenda be amended to allow for their presentation of the upcoming workshops.

_Upon motion of Bill Neale, seconded by Bruce Edgerton, it was unanimously voted to approve the amended agenda._

Laurel Stegina told the members that FHI has been working on presentations to be made at the workshops and pop-ups as an outreach effort to involve as many people as possible in the collection of data for the POCD. Public input is essential to the plan. Ms. Stegina spoke about different ways to get the attention of the public and have them answer questions to which are important to them. Frank DeFelice suggested that zip codes be used to identify what area of the state the people answering the questionnaires are living. Bruce Edgerton suggested there could also be a bulletin board with a map of the region so people could “pin” where they work, live, and own property.

Different dates were discussed for the workshops and the members were asked if there will be any upcoming activities in their towns where a pop-up event could be scheduled. Sam Gold stated that FHI will present the first workshop and then the COG and RPC members will conduct the remaining events. Ken Soudan said that civic clubs and organizations could be contacted for help and the swell of the beach community in the summer could greatly add to the participation at a pop-up.

Beth Emery felt that before a workshop is scheduled prom night and graduation dates should be confirmed as to not scheduling a conflict. Stephanie Warren asked who would contact the public. Sam Gold said that the RPC members, staff and advertising would be used. He stated that business type cards will be printed and then can be distributed to the public, also newspapers, press releases would be used. Frank DeFelice said that people loved the clickers to answer questions. A list of the proposed questions will be e-mailed to the members for their review.

4. PUBLIC COMMENTS

Frank DeFelice asked if anyone from the public wished to speak. There was no one at this time.

5. DISCUSSION ON MEETING ATTENDANCE AND QUORUM
REQUIREMENTS

Frank DeFelice spoke about the lack of a quorum and the reasons for cancelling the meetings. He said that three towns are not represented at all and other towns have members that never come to the meetings. He asked Sam Gold to speak to the CEOs and if the member is not interested maybe an alternate would come. Ideas were discussed such as lowering the number needed for a quorum or the simple majority present votes. Bruce Edgerton felt that the number of members needed for a quorum should remain the same.
